REPORT SAYS DECLARATION BUT FEW HOURS OFF

The Uncertainty as to the Status of Germany and Italy Is About to End With a Declaration of War by Italy Against the Teutons—Report That Serbians Have Lost Monastir Was Denied—Berlin Announces Capture of 2,800 Serbians and Several Cannon—Italian Steam-er Sends Wireless That It Is Chased by Sub-marine—Russia and Persia Have Reached an Agreement and Trouble Was Averted.

[By Associated Press.]

London, Nov. 20.—A declaration of war by Italy against Germany is a matter of hours, according to a dispatch received here today from Bern, Switzerland, which said the diplomats there understand the final breach is coming.

An Athens dispatch filed yesterday casts doubt on reports that Monastir had fallen into the hands of the Bulgarians. This dispatch reported Serbians gains at Monastir. The report of Monastir's fall is still believed here.

Berlin announces the capture of 2,800 more Serbians, four cannon and several towns.

The bombardment of Ostend by the entente monitors is reported from Berlin, which says that the coast batteries caused the withdrawal of the warships.

CHASED BY SUBMARINES.

[By Associated Press.]

Madrid, Nov. 20.—Advises today say the Italian steamship Verona sent out a wireless call telling of pursuit by a submarine. The Verona is in the Western Mediterranean.

RUSSIA AND PERSIA AGREE.

[By Associated Press.]

Teheran, Nov. 20.—Adjustment of differences between Persia and Russia has caused the Shah to decide not to leave Teheran, according to the official announcement today. The Persian government is said to have smoothed out the difficulty by taking steps to stop agitation by German agents and to disarm roving bands. Russian troops now approaching the city will change their course.

SMUGGLED ARMS INTO MEXICO

Was Suspected by England of Taking Supplies to German Vessels.

[By Associated Press.]

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20.—The American schooner Lucy H., which recently left Key West with a cargo of munitions for Mexico without clearance papers, has been found anchored near Pensacola. It is reported the vessel had landed her cargo in Mexico. She had been suspected by England of attempting to transport supplies to Germany.

WOULD DONATE CAR LINE TO CITY

San Angelo Line Not Profitable and Owner Offers to Donate it to the City.

[By Associated Press.]

San Angelo, Tex., Nov. 20.—A proffer of the entire street car system, valued at $100,000, as a Christmas present from J. D. Sugg to this city, is being considered by the municipality. The company has not been profitable for several years.

LOST THEIR BABY.

At 6 o'clock this morning the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dansby of this city and took away their precious little seven-week-old son, after an illness of two or three days. The parents have the deep and heartfelt sympathy of all in their sad loss.

The funeral will be held from the residence tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and the little body will be laid to rest in the Steep Hollow cemetery.

COTTON RECEIPTS.

Cotton has been received in the local warehouses this season as follows:

Lawrence warehouse	5,665
Brick warehouse	4,178
Union warehouse	3,685

Total 13,528
Cottonseed, $32 per ton.
Bryan spots, 11c, middling basis.

FINE POTATOES.

L. M. Cook, one of our leading farmers from the Steep Hollow community, called at the Commercial Club office today and left a sample of sweet potatoes grown on his farm. Twelve of these potatoes fill a half-bushel measure. Mr. Cook reports a yield of 100 bushels per acre from a three-acre field. Mr. Cook has demonstrated also that fall Irish potatoes can be grown in Brazos County. He left a sample of fall-grown potatoes planted the latter part of August, and prettier potatoes were never exhibited anywhere.

MAN KILLED AT LYONS STATION

Slayer in Jail at Caldwell Says Deceased Abused His Wife.

[By Associated Press.]

Houston, Tex., Nov. 20.—Reinhardt Hines of Lyons is in jail at Caldwell following the killing yesterday of William Courtney at the railroad station in Lyons. Courtney was charged by Hines with having abused Mrs. Hines when she interceded to prevent Courtney from abusing his own wife.
